3. LODGING: There are many excellent lodging options in Grand Rapids and vicinity (e.g., J.W. Marriott, Amway Grand Plaza, Holiday Inn Express; all about 40 minutes to PCCI); as well as several in Hastings (e.g., Holiday Inn Express at 269-945-0000; about 10 minutes to PCCI).

PCCI also offers lodging on their property (the rates are comparable to motel lodging). If you wish to stay in any of the accommodations at PCCI listed below, you must contact Paul Vugteveen, Chef and Hospitality Coordinator at PCCI, at 269-721-4410, or vugteveenp@cedarcreekinstitute.org. He can advise you of the nightly rates for the different accommodations at PCCI. Note that MES does NOT make reservations for overnight accommodations; you must do that. MES participants are encouraged to make reservations at PCCI with Paul as soon as possible, should they desire to stay over Friday and/or Saturday night to take advantage of insect observation/collecting on the property. Boats, waders, and aquatic nets, will be at our disposal, but you must bring your own collecting paraphernalia!

Hyla House (a renovated farm house with 8 singles and 6 doubles; 5 full baths with handicap access)
Meadow Lodge (a modern dormitory-style lodging, with 2 singles, 7 doubles, and 3 triples).
Prairie View (rooms are similar to nice motel rooms; 4 doubles)
